David Dana, D.D.S.

presents

“Achieving the Best Facial Esthetics
through Dentistry”

Wednesday, January 26th, 2011

ABOUT THE TOPIC

When discussing esthetics in dentistry, it is imperative to look beyond a nice color match or shape of the teeth.

Understanding of dental and skeletal relations, anteroposterior, vertical and transverse dimensions is most important, as well as how the soft tissues of the face affect the patient's facial balance.

A comprehensive approach to facial-dental esthetics is needed to achieve the most beautiful results.

ABOUT THE SPEAKER

Born in Mexico City, Dr. David Dana received his Bachelors of Science degree in 1977. He obtained his DDS at the Universidad Tecnologica de Mexico, in Mexico City, in 1981 and in 1983 he graduated from the Prosthodontics program at Boston University School of Dentistry. Dr. Dana moved to Southern California and established his practice in South El Monte, and later in Beverly Hills.

In pursuing his career goals, Dr. Dana has continued with his education in periodontics implantology, restorative dentistry and dental aesthetics, TMJ and orthodontics. He joined the San Gabriel Valley Periodontal Surgery Study club in 1990, where he continues his studies today. Dr. Dana joined Progressive Orthodontic Seminars in 1990, and became an instructor in 1993. He lectures nationally and internationally on a variety of topics related to Orthodontics, TMJ and Facial aesthetics, and also extensively in the uses of Botulin toxin (BOTOX) in dentistry and lip augmentation with dermal fillers. He has trained hundreds of doctors in Europe and the USA.

Dr. Dana is also the Curriculum Coordinator for Progressive Dentistry. His private practice focuses on Facial Aesthetics, Prosthodontics, Orthodontics and TMJ treatment.

EDITOR'S REPORT

LOOKING FORWARD

Dear Fraters,

I hope everyone had a wonderful holiday season. I normally have words of 'wisdom' to share each month, this time though I will keep things short and sweet. Let's hope 2011 is an improvement on 2010 for all of us! I look forward to seeing everyone at the next dinner meeting.

Fraternally,

Michael Schneider, DMD

AO SUPPORTS THE L.A. JEWISH HOME

A big turnout of our very “athletic” running (walking?) members joined hundreds of other participants for the XI annual “Walk of Ages” on December 5th.

The dental clinics at both Jewish Home campuses have been supported by our local chapters for many years. Several hundred dollars in contributions were raised for the worthy cause.

From the left: Bob Licht, Joe Ovardia, Mark Collons, Leon Unterman, Bob Kassabian, and team leader Max Cutler. Missing from the photo were Nanette Cutler, Lou Yuster, Lou and Sheri Schwartzbach, and Lynn Ovardia.
